Part I - Information Regarding the Reporting Persons

For each of the entities listed in the table below, the response to Item 2(d) is that there is no such conviction. For WBD and Purchaser, the response to Item 2(e) is that there are no such proceedings. For Skydance, the response to Item 2(e) is that in 2022, Skydance entered into an Assurance of Discontinuance (“AOD”) with the Investor Protection Bureau of the New York State Attorney General’s Office to resolve the subject matter of a 2018 CBS Board of Directors’ investigation and related matters, including with respect to CBS’ related public disclosures pursuant to the Martin Act. After credits for the settlement amount paid in a consolidated federal securities class action (Construction Laborers Pension Trust for Southern California, et al., v. CBS Corp and Leslie Moonves, Case No.: 18-cv-7796-VEC (S.D.N.Y.)), and certain financial commitments to human resources-related programs made by CBS in connection with an earlier resolution with the Civil Rights Bureau of the New York State Attorney General’s Office, Skydance made a payment of $7.25 million, which by agreement with the Investor Protection Bureau was distributed in connection with the federal securities class action settlement discussed above. The resolution with the Investor Protection Bureau includes no admission of liability or wrongdoing by Skydance. The obligations under the AOD expire on November 2, 2027.
